3. Different forms of licences

A person shall not sell any liquor unless he or she has first obtained one of the following licences—

- (a) a licence (in this Act referred to as a "Retail and Wholesale Off Licence") to sell liquor by retail and wholesale for consumption off the premises;
- (b) a licence (in this Act referred to as a "Wholesale Off Licence") to sell liquor by wholesale only for consumption off the premises;
- (c) a licence (in this Act referred to as an "On Licence") to sell liquor by retail only for consumption on the premises;
- (d) a licence (in this Act referred to as a "Wine and Beer (Off) Licence") to sell wine and beer by retail and wholesale for consumption off the premises;
- (e) a licence (in this Act referred to as a "Wine and Beer (on) Licence") to sell wine and beer by retail only for consumption on the premises;
- (f) a licence (in this Act referred to as a "Club Licence") to sell liquor by retail only to bona fide members of a club for consumption on the premises of the club;
- (g) a licence (in this Act referred to as an "Occasional Licence") to sell liquor by retail only for consumption on the premises and on the special occasion mentioned in the licence;
- (h) a licence (in this Act referred to as a "Night-Club Licence") to sell liquor by retail only for consumption on the premises of the night club.

[Act No. 13 of 1970.1

4. Granting of licences

(1) An application for a licence shall be made in the prescribed form to the Licensing Authority of the locality where the applicant intends to carry on the business of selling liquor.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1]

(2) A licence shall not be granted under this Act unless the Licensing Authority publishes in two consecutive issues of the Gazette, a Notice declaring his or her intention to grant a licence under this Act and inviting the views of residents of the locality on the matter.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.]

(3) The Notice shall state the name and address of the applicant and the address of the premises in which the business for which the application for a licence is made is to be carried on.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.]

(4) The Notice shall also be displayed in the offices of the local authority and in any conspicuous place accessible to the public in the locality where the applicant intends to carry on the business of selling liquor.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1]

(5) In considering any application for a licence under this Act, the Licensing Authority shall take into consideration—

- (a) the suitability of the premises as a proper place for carrying on the business for which such licence is applied for,
- (b) the suitability of the applicant as a proper person to be granted a licence to sell liquor under this Act; and
- (c) the views of the residents of the locality where the applicant intends to carry on the business of selling liquor.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.]

5. Licences may be refused

The Licensing Authority may in their discretion grant or refuse a licence:

Provided that a person to whom a licence has been refused by the Authority may appeal to the Minister who, if he or she shall see fit, may direct such Authority to grant the licence.

6. Forms of licences

Unless otherwise prescribed, licences shall be in one of the forms set out in the Schedule to this Act.

[Schedule.]

7. Fees

The prescribed fees payable in respect of licences issued under this Act shall be paid to the Treasury of the local authority of the area in which the premises in respect of which licence is issued in situate.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1

8. Licences and certificates to be exhibited

(1) A licence issued under this Act and a certificate issued by a Medical Officer of Health in pursuance of any by-law or rule made under this Act shall be exhibited in some conspicuous part of the licensed premises to which they relate.

(2) If the licence or certificate is not so exhibited, a person who sells any liquor in such premises commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding, for the first offence, one hundred dalasis and not exceeding, for the second and every subsequent offence, two hundred dalasis.

(3) A conviction for an offence under this section shall be recorded on the licence or certificate, as the case may be, of the person convicted.

9. Limit of licences

(1) Licences shall only be deemed to authorise the sale of liquor on the premises specified therein.

(2) Licence and certificate holders desiring to have their licences and certificates transferred to other premises may apply to the Licensing Authority for that purpose.

(3) The application shall be accompanied by a plan or description of such other premises and the Licensing Authority may grant the application, and shall in such case endorse the fact and date of the transfer on the back of the licensee, or may refuse the application, subject to appeal to the Minister as in the case of an application for a licence.

(4) On the death of a licensee his or her licence shall pass to his or her executors or executrices or administrators or administratrices.

(5) A licence shall not be assignable by a licensee, whether on the sale of the goodwill of any business or otherwise, or by his or her executors or executrices or administrators or administratrices on his or her decease, without the permission of the Licensing Authority.

10. Sign boards

(1) A holder of a licence (other than a Club Licence and a Night Club Licence) granted by a Licensing Authority for the sale of liquor by retail, shall suspend or affix, and maintain, over the entrance to the licensed premises a board of not less dimensions than sixty centimetres by twenty centimetres, on which shall be printed in legible Roman characters the name of the licensee and the class of licence of which he or she is the holder.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this subsection commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dalasis.

[Act No. 13 of 1970, Act No. 5 of 1986.1

(3) A person who is not licensed shall not have any words on his or her premises purporting that he or she is licensed, and no licensed person shall have any words or letters on his or her premises purporting that he or she is licensed in any other way than that in which he or she is duly licensed.

(4) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this subsection commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

11. Duration of licences

All licences shall take effect from the date specified therein and shall terminate, in the case of annual licences, on the thirty-first day of December and in the case of half-yearly licences on the thirtieth day of June, or the thirty-first day of December, next following. Occasional licences shall take effect and shall terminate on the date and at the hour specified therein.

12. Licences subject to by-laws or rules

All licences shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and to any by-laws or rules made under this Act and for the time being in force.

13. Sale of liquor without licence

A person who sells any liquor without being duly licensed to sell the same, or if licensed, sells liquor in any quantities which, or at any place where, he or she is not authorised by his or her licence to sell, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both the fine and imprisonment:

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to extend to physicians, surgeons, apothecaries or druggists as to any spirits or spirituous liquor that they may use in preparing or dispensing medicines.

14. Power to exclude drunken persons

(1) A licensee or his or her servant or agent may refuse to admit to or may expel from his or her licensed premises, by force if necessary, a person who is drunken, violent, quarrelsome or disorderly, and any person whose presence on his or her premises would subject him or her to a penalty under this Act.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.]

(2) A person who, on being requested by the licensee, or his or her servant or agent or by a police officer to quit such premises, refuses or fails to do so, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

(3) All police officers are required, on demand of such licensee, servant or agent to expel or assist in expelling such person from such premises and may use such force as may be required for the purpose.

15. Penalty for permitting drunkenness .

(1) A licensee who permits drunkenness, or any violent, quarrelsome, disorderly or riotous conduct to take place on his or her premises, or who sells any liquor to a drunken person, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding, for the first offence, one hundred dalasis and not exceeding, for the second and every subsequent offence, two hundred dalasis. Any conviction for an offence under this section shall be recorded on the licence of the person convicted.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1

(2) If a licensee is charged with a contravention of this section, and it is proved that a person was drunk or guilty of any violent, quarrelsome, disorderly or riotous conduct on his or her premises, it lies on the licensee to prove that he or she and the persons employed by him or her took all reasonable steps for preventing drunkenness or violent, quarrelsome, disorderly, or riotous conduct, as the case may be, on the premises.

16. Offences by licensee

A licensee who—

- (a) knowingly harbours or knowingly suffers to remain on the licensed premises, a police officer during any part of the time appointed for such police officer to be on duty, unless for the purpose of keeping or restoring order or in the execution of his or her duty;

- (b) supplies any liquor or refreshment, whether by way of gift or sale, to a police officer on duty unless by the authority of some superior officer,
- (c) sells liquor to any child apparently under the age of sixteen years;
- (d) permits or suffers gaming or any unlawful game to be played on the licensed premises;
- (e) knowingly permits the licensed premises to be the habitual resort or place of meeting of reputed prostitutes, whether the object of their so resorting or meeting is or is not prostitution, if he or she allows them to remain thereon longer than is necessary for the purpose of obtaining reasonable refreshment;
- (f) fails to admit to, or obstructs, any Justice of the Peace, Governor, police officer or other authorised person from entering the licensed premises in the execution of his or her duty, or fails to produce his or her licence when demanded by a Justice of the Peace, Governor, police officer or other authorised person;
- (g) keeps the licensed premises open for the sale of liquor at any time except during the permitted hours or allows any liquor to be consumed on the licensed premises at any time except during the permitted hours:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall preclude a licensee, licensed to sell liquor for consumption on the premises, from selling such liquor at any time to persons lodging in his or her house; or
- (h) commits a breach of any of the conditions of his or her licence, for which breach no other penalty is provided, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction therefor, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1

17. Penalty for being found on licensed premises except during permitted hours

(l) If, at any time other than during the permitted hours, a person is found on any licensed premises, he or she shall, unless he or she satisfies the court that he or she was an inmate, a servant or a lodger on such premises, or that otherwise his or her presence on such premises was not in contravention of the provisions of this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

Liquor Licences Act

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1

(2) A police officer may demand the name and address of a person found in any licensed premises at any time other than during the permitted hours, and, if he or she has reasonable ground to suppose that the name or address given is false, may require evidence of the correctness of such name and address, and may, if such person fail upon such demand to give his or her name and address or satisfactory evidence of the correctness of such name and address, apprehend him or her without warrant and take him or her as soon as practicable before a Magistrate.

(3) A person required by a police officer under this section to give his or her name and address, who fails to give the same or gives a false name or address or makes a false statement with respect to such name or address, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dalasis.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.]

(4) A person who, by falsely representing himself or herself to be a lodger, buys or obtains, or attempts to buy or obtain, at any licensed premises any liquor at any time other than during the permitted hours commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred dalasis.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.1

18. Powers of police officer

(1) A police officer may, for the purpose of preventing or detecting the violation of any of the provisions of this Act or of any by-laws or rules made thereunder, enter at all times on any licensed premises.

(2) A person who, by himself or herself, or by a person in his or her employ, or acting by his or her direction, or with his or her consent, refuses or fails to admit a police officer in the execution of his or her duty demanding to enter in pursuance of this section, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding, for the first offence one hundred dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month and not exceeding, for the second and every subsequent offence, two hundred dalasis or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

19. Evidence of sale or consumption of liquor

In proving the sale or consumption of liquor for the purpose of any proceedings relating to an offences under this Act, it is not be necessary to show that any money actually passed or that any liquor actually was consumed, if the court hearing the case is satisfied that a transaction in the nature of sale actually took place, or that any consumption of liquor was about to take place, and proof of consumption or intended consumption of liquor on licensed premises by some person other than the occupier of, or a servant in, such premises, shall be evidence that such liquor was sold to the person, consuming or being about to consume or carrying away the same, by or on behalf of the holder of such licence.

20. • Liability of licensee and employees

(1) If a person being the manager for, or the servant of, or authorised to act for, a licensee does any act or thing or is guilty of an omission which if done or omitted by the licensee would constitute an offence by the licensee, both such person and the licensee are liable to the penalties prescribed by this Act for such offence, whether such act, thing or omission was done or made with or without the knowledge or consent of the licensee.

(2) If it appears to the court before which an offence under this Act is prosecuted that a licensee was personally guilty thereof or concerned therein, or had omitted to take reasonable and proper precautions for the prevention of such offence, whether by employing agents or servants known by him or her, or commonly known, to be of bad character or otherwise, such court may, in addition to any other penalty which it may impose, order the forfeiture of the licence of such licensee.

21. Burden of proof of licence or exemption

In any prosecution for an offence under this Act or under any by-laws or rules made thereunder, the burden of proving the existence of any licence or the validity thereof, or any exemption or defence whatsoever under this Act or such by-laws or rules, shall be upon an accused person claiming the benefit thereof.

22. Search warrant

A Magistrate, or Justice of the Peace, or, in the Regions, a Governor or member of a District Tribunal, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground to believe that liquor is sold, by retail or otherwise, in any premises not duly licensed for that purpose, may grant a warrant under his or her hand to any police officer or other person or persons named in such warrant to enter, if need be by force, the premises named in such warrant, and every part thereof, and examine them and search for any liquor therein, and seize and remove such liquor.

23. Liquor illegally sold, etc., to be forfeited

All liquor, wheresoever found, which is proved to the satisfaction of a court having cognizance of offences under this Act to have been sold, kept, concealed or otherwise dealt with in contravention of any provisions of this Act or of any by-laws or rules made hereunder, or with intent to commit any such contravention, may be forfeited by order of such court and shall thereafter be disposed of as the Minister may direct.

24. Prosecution of offences

(1) All offences under this Act or under any by-laws or rules made hereunder may be prosecuted summarily.

(2) An offence under this Act committed by a person subject to the jurisdiction of a District Tribunal is triable by the District Tribunal having such jurisdiction.

25. Power to make by-laws and rules

(1) The Authority may, on the advice of the Licensing Authority, make by-laws in respect of the following—

- (a) regulating the issue of licences and prescribing the fees to be paid therefor;
- (b) prescribing the forms of licences and varying or amending any of the forms in the Schedule to this Act or substituting other forms therefor;
- (c) regulating the hours for the sale or consumption of liquor on licensed premises;
- (d) for securing the proper control and management of licensed premises; and
- (e) generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act, and may in the by-laws prescribe a penalty not exceeding one hundred dalasis for the contravention of any of the by-laws.

[LN 1 17 of 1963, Act No. 5 of 1986.1

(2) Any by-laws in force on the tenth day of June, 1986, shall, until revoked, be deemed to have been made by the Authority and shall, with such modifications as are considered necessary, continue to be in force.

[Act No. 5 of 1986.]

26. Exemption

Nothing in this Act shall apply to the sale or supply of liquor to any member of any Naval, Military, Air, or Police Force in any canteen, institute or mess recognised as such by the Minister.

27. Repeal of Sale of Liquor Ordinance, 1903

The Sale of Liquor Ordinance, 1903, is hereby repealed:

Provided that all by-laws in force at the commencement of this Act, in so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act, shall remain in force until amended or revoked under this Act.

LIQUOR LICENCES (CITY OF BANJUL) BY-LAWS

[Made under section 25.]

[By-laws 2 of 1952, LN 10 of 1966, LN 36 of 1973, LN 43 of 1975.1

1. Citation

These By-laws may be cited as the Liquor Licences (City of Banjul) By-laws.

2. Licensing meetings

(1) The Banjul City Council (hereinafter called "the Council") shall, in June and December of each year hold a meeting (hereinafter called a "licensing meeting") to consider applications for licences other than occasional licences to sell liquor and for the transfer of such licences within the City of Banjul. At such licensing meetings the Mayor and seven other members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

(2) Licensing meetings shall be held in public.

3. Application for licences

(1) All applications for licences (other than occasional licences) to sell liquor in the City of Banjul shall be made to the Clerk to the Council in the Form set out in the First Schedule to these By-laws.

[First Schedule.]

- (2) All such applications shall be delivered to the Clerk to the Council—
- (a) if for consideration at the June licensing meeting, not later than the first day of May in each year,
  - (b) if for consideration at the December licensing meeting, not later than the first day of November in each year.

(3) Every such application, if for a licence to sell liquor to be consumed on the premises, shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Medical Officer of Health that the premises in respect of which the licence is sought are suitable for the purpose of selling liquor to be consumed thereon:

Provided that no club or night club licence shall be granted in respect of any premises unless such premises shall first have been certified by the Medical Officer of Health, the Chief Building Control Officer, the Inspector-General of Police and the Manager, Electricity Division of the National Water and Electricity Company as fit and proper and otherwise safe and suitable for the purpose of being used as a club or night club.

[LN 36 of 1973.]

(4) A person who applies for a club or night club licence shall first pay an inspection fee as set out in the Third Schedule to these By-laws.

[LN 36 of 1973, Third Schedule.]

4. Special licensing meetings

(1) If a person wishes to apply for a licence (other than an occasional licence) to sell liquor in the City of Banjul and wishes his or her application to be considered at a meeting other than one or other of the licensing meetings provided for in by-law 2 of these By-laws, the person may apply in writing to the Council for the holding of a special meeting (hereinafter called a "special licensing meeting") to hear his or her application.

(2) A fee of thirty-one dalasis and fifty bututs shall be payable in respect of each licence required on the application for the holding of a special licensing meeting and shall be paid to the Clerk to the Council at the time of delivery to him or her of such application. Such fee shall be additional to the fees prescribed by by-law 12 of these By-laws and shall not be recoverable from the Council whether the application for the licence is granted or refused.

(3) An application for the holding of a special licensing meeting shall be accompanied by an application for the licence or licences required in the Form set out in the First Schedule to these By-laws and the provisions of paragraph (3) of by-law 3 of these By-laws shall also be complied with.

[First Schedule.]

5. Notice of meetings and publication of list of applications

The Clerk of the Council shall, at least fourteen days before the date of any licensing meeting—

- (a) cause a notice thereof to be published outside the Council's offices and at such other places as the Council may deem desirable;
- (b) give notice thereof in writing to all applicants for licences who have complied with the provisions of these By-laws relating to applications for licences;
- (c) publish, outside the Council's offices and at such other places as the Council may deem desirable, a list giving the names and addresses of the applicants, the addresses of the premises in respect of which licences are sought and the classes of licences applied for and shall forward a copy of such list to the Inspector-General of Police.

6. Notice of opposition to and support of applications

(1) A person who resides in the City of Banjul and who wishes to oppose or support an application contained in a published list shall notify the Clerk to the Council in writing at least two days before the date of the licensing meeting at which such application is to be considered and in so doing shall give his or her full name and address and the reasons for his or her opposition to or support of the application.

(2) The Clerk to the Council shall submit to the Council at the licensing meeting all notices of opposition or support duly received by him or her as provided in paragraph (1) of this By-law, and the Council may, in its absolute discretion, either hear or refuse to hear in person a person who has lodged any such notice, provided that the Inspector-General of Police (either in person or by any police officer on his or her behalf) is entitled to be heard in respect of any objections by the Police against the issue of such licences.

7. Consideration of application and grant of licences

(1) The Council shall consider each application and any opposition or support which may have been offered to it and shall then proceed to grant or refuse such application.

(2) When the Council has granted an application the Clerk to the Council shall, on receipt of the fee prescribed in the Third Schedule to these By-laws, issue a licence in the prescribed form.

[Third Schedule.]

8. Application for occasional licence

An applicant for an occasional licence shall submit his or her application to the Council not less than two clear days before the date in respect of which the licence is required and the Clerk to the Council shall forthwith give notice in writing of the application to the Inspector-General of Police.

9. Issue of occasional licence

The Clerk to the Council may (under the directions of the Council) and subject to the conditions of by-law 8 of these By-laws, issue occasional licences on payment of the prescribed fee.

10. Permitted hours for sale of liquor

The hours during which liquor may be sold or supplied on any licensed premises in the City of Banjul shall be the hours appearing in Column II of the Second Schedule to these By-laws opposite to the class of licence appearing in Column I of the said Schedule, a licence of such class being in force in respect of such premises:

Provided that in the case of a club licence, an extension of hours may be granted by the Council upon application not less than three clear days before the date on which the extension is required. Information shall be given forthwith to the Inspector-General of Police of any extension of hours granted under this by-law.

[Second Schedule.]

11. Transfer of licences

Application for the transfer of a licence to other premises shall be heard at a half-yearly meeting or may be made to a special licensing meeting provided that any application for a transfer to other premises shall be governed by by-laws 5, 6 and 7 of these By-laws. The fee payable for the transfer of a licence shall be two dalasis and fifty bututs except that if the application is made at a special licensing meeting the applicant shall in addition pay the fee prescribed in paragraph (2) of by-laws 4 of these By-laws for the holding of such a meeting.

12. Fees

The fees to be paid for licences for the sale of liquor in the City of Banjul or any extension thereof permitted by law shall be the fees set out in the Third Schedule of these By-laws.

[Third Schedule.]

13. Clubs and night clubs
